Issue 41– September 2009

Next Working Bee

The next working bee will be on 19th & 20th September 2009. All welcome. If you have not been to one recently please feel welcome! Bring Grandma and bring the kids! Pasta and salad provided by Pallins on Friday night for those already there.

There will be things to do, around the cabins and in the bush. We will also be preparing the area around the buildings in case of bushfires in the area during the summer. At night we will also be burning some of the wood we split recently.

Let Hyone know that you are coming! bookings@benricketts.org.au or 42360208

2009 Working Bees on the Mountain

There will be one more working bee this year after the September one.

November 7th & 8th with the AGM on Sunday 8th November at noon.

Cabin Bookings

Don't forget to get your bookings in to Hyone for that special weekend away. Spring is a fantastic times for walks and reading at Ben Ricketts Environmental Preserve and snuggling up in front of the fire at night.

Get your summer bookings in now so you do not miss out!

Committees

Attached with this Come Aloong is a committees list. Shareholders or Friends who no longer want to be on a committee or want to be help on a committee please contact Rob Pallin at committee@benricketts.org.au

Communal area

The work on the Communal area will be starting soon and we hope we will be able to hold the AGM in November in the area.

The red cedars are copper coloured with their new leaves and the bush is alive with flowers and the lyrebirds are performing!

Sandy – The cow who came home

The book is now in its second printing and is selling well. If you want to buy some you need to get in early to ensure your copies.

An order form is available on the website or ask Rob Pallin or Hyone King to send you one.

See you at Ben Ricketts Environmental Preserve soon!
